DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 4 and 7 are objected to because of the following informalities: the grammar in line 3 is incorrect. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 3-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 3 recites the limitation "the first and second tank groups" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Regarding claims 4-8, similar recitations as above are present in the claims.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Sonoda.

Claims 1-2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Watanabe et al (Figures 1, 10, 12 and 14-15).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sonoda in view of Sasaki et al.

Sonoda discloses all the claimed limitations except each unit having a pair of tubes.

Sasaki et al (Figures 47-48) discloses a heat exchanger comprising a first core A having tubes 1 disposed between a first tank 3 and third tank 4, and an adjacent second core B having tubes 21 disposed between a second tank 23 and fourth tank 24 for the purpose of increasing the heat exchange capacity.

Since Sonoda and Sasaki et al are both from the same field of endeavor and/or analogous art, the purpose disclosed by Sasaki et al would have been recognized in the pertinent art of Sonoda.

It would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to employ in Sonoda a pair of adjacent tubes for the purpose of increasing the heat exchange capacity as recognized by Sasaki et al.

Regarding claim 3, Sasaki et al (Figure 47) discloses inlet pipe 200 connected to first tank 3 and outlet pipe 190 connected to second tank 23.

Regarding claims 4-6, Sasaki et al (Figure 47) discloses connection unit 60 integral with the first tank 3 and second tank 23. Additionally, Sasaki et al (Figure 50) discloses connection unit 220 integral to the first tank 3 and second tank 23.

Regarding claims 7-9, Sasaki et al (Figure 50) discloses connection unit 230 integral to the third tank 4 and fourth tank 24.

Conclusion

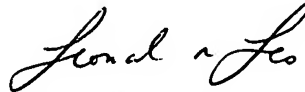

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
